YOGA RETREATS

Return to Your Essence

A PERSONAL REFLECTION JOURNAL

BEFORE / DURING / AFTER

CANGGU, BALI • APRIL 24-30, 2027

BEGIN HERE

A letter to yourself

This journal is yours. There are no right answers, and nothing to prove.

01 Before you arrive

Take time to notice where you are in your life right now.

02 During the retreat

Write whenever a thought, sensation, or moment stays with you.

03 When you return

Repeat the questions and the self-check, then look back gently.

A gentle reminder

You can skip any question. Not every change is visible immediately. Some of the most meaningful shifts are quiet.

“You are allowed to arrive exactly as you are.”

BEFORE THE RETREAT

Where am I now?

Complete before traveling to Bali. Date: _____

01 How do I really feel at this moment in my life?

02 What has been taking most of my energy lately?

03 What do I need more of — and what am I ready to have less of?

04 When do I feel most connected to myself?

BEFORE THE RETREAT

What am I carrying?

Meet yourself with curiosity rather than judgment.

05 What expectations, roles or responsibilities am I carrying?

06 What has my body been trying to tell me recently?

07 What am I avoiding, postponing or finding difficult to face?

08 If I could give myself permission for one thing, what would it be?

BEFORE THE RETREAT

My intentions

An intention is a direction, not an outcome you need to force.

09 Why did I choose to come on this retreat?

10 How would I like to feel while I am here?

11 What would I like to reconnect with or rediscover?

12 What would it mean to be kind to myself during this experience?

BEFORE THE RETREAT

My starting point

Circle a number from 1 (not at all) to 10 (very much). There is no ideal score.

AFTER THE RETREAT

What shifted?

Complete near the end of the retreat or soon after. Date: _____

01 How do I feel now, compared with when I arrived?

02 What did I discover or remember about myself?

03 What felt challenging — and what did that teach me?

04 Which moments helped me feel most alive, grounded or connected?

AFTER THE RETREAT

What will I carry home?

Let integration be small, practical and realistic.

05 What am I ready to release or relate to differently?

06 What is one boundary, ritual or habit I want to bring home?

07 What support or community would help me sustain this?

08 What would I like my future self to remember from Bali?

INTEGRATION

Then & now

Return to your BEFORE and AFTER ratings. Notice what matters to you.

01 What changed in how I relate to myself?

02 What stayed the same — and can I accept that?

03 One gentle commitment for the next 30 days:

04 Revisit in 30 days: what has lasted? What needs support?

AETHERA

The return to yourself is not a destination.

May you take what nourished you,
leave behind what no longer fits,
and keep returning to your own rhythm.
